

Troop 90 Code of Conduct

Each Scout in Troop 90 shall practice living by the Scout Oath and Scout Law in every day life, as well as, at all scouting functions. All Scouts and adults will observe the Guide to Safe Scouting as defined by the Boy Scouts of America.

The Code of Conduct is as follows:

- Each scout will treat others with respect at all times.
- Each scout will conduct himself in a 'scout like' manner and carry out all duties assigned to him by the leaders (both youth and adult) in charge.
- Language that is foul (cursing), obscene, derogatory or demeaning will not be tolerated at any time.
- Physical or verbal abuse, hazing or malicious pranks against others will not be tolerated.
- Roughhousing, fighting or "threats" to others will not be allowed.
- Personal and Troop property will be respected at all times and nothing will be taken or used that belongs to another person or the Troop without proper permission.
- If you break, ruin or lose Troop equipment or another person's property, you will replace it whether or not you had permission to use.
- During campouts and other scout activities, scouts will not be allowed to leave the event for any reason, unless an Adult Leader has granted permission, and ensured the proper supervision. This includes leaving with a parent/guardian. You will also abide by the buddy system on all Troop outings/events.
- The meeting or camping area will be kept neat and left clean including the bathroom area. Scouts will clean up after themselves and at the end of each meeting, as assigned.

Non-compliance with any of the above Code will result in the Scout facing one or more of the following actions, with right to appeal to the Troop Committee Chair: (Please acknowledge by initialing)
